Why were two separate documents drawn up for the conveyance of this same property? The other copy included additional clauses relating to a loan on which this property was secured.</li><li>2. Why was a tallow chandler from Skipton interested in 3 small fields in Kilnsey?</li></ol> The existence of two similar documents, with the difference that only one relates also to a loan, suggests this copy is a back-up in case the loan repayments were not made. The involvement of the tallow chandler suggests this is “conveyance” was more about security for the loan than the sale of and.
